About the NGO

A Safe World for Women is a non-profit. Non-governmental organization that focuses on women's rights and freedoms. Things like trafficking and slavery, domestic violence, poverty and economics and many more are their main focuses. A Safe World for Women needs volunteers like you! Because it is non-profit all the people that work here are volunteers. They need people to help run the website, research and much more! There is a job within the organization for everyone!

Support Safe World Foundation

MAKE A CHANGE

Volunteer Today at

www.asafeworldforwomen.org

Luke Baulk, Morgan Matheson and Sarah Farquhar

Volunteer Opportunities At Safe World International Foundation

What do you need?

As a Safe World volunteer you will join their team of dynamic, devoted volunteers! team!

Contribute your skills to help make the world safe for everyone! Whatever your role you will need to enjoy working with a global and very multicultural

You will need to be fairly familiar with the internet. A large amount of the work done by safe world is done online

Volunteering for SAFE WORLD

Administration Team!

Working at the hub of a global organisation! You will work with the rest of the administration team. Completing general administrative tasks that need to be done for the organisation to con-

You need to be reliable, familiar to working on the internet and able to work remotely

This is a position requiring a time commitment of a few hours

Grants Team!

Grants Coordinator

You will need to work with representatives of funding sources to assess grant suitability and you will work with the Safe World Directors on the outline details of proposals and with the Grant Writer

Grants Writer

To get a complete understanding of planned project, you will work with key Safe World staff, perform comprehensive research into the project and analyze the feasibility of the project's budget.

Research Team!

You will help to source news articles, research background for reports and campaigns, and help to build a database of women's organisations and groups.

You need to be familiar with online research. Ideally, you will be familiar with compiling a database.

IT Team!

Assist the Safe World News Team and update the website, operate a Content Management System, researching additional technologies, help develop websites for our Field Partners - grassroots organisations throughout the world. Many have no websites and those who have websites often need help in presentation and design.

For more information on Volunteer opportunities visit

www.asafeworldforwomen.org